ABBY

In The Last of Us Part II, Abby's story intersects and collides with Ellie's. As a former Firefly and member of the Washington Liberation Front, Abby's character design reflects her years of combat and survival training, prioritizing utilitarian clothing and gear. She's a stoic and hardened soldier, carrying herself with the confidence necessary to adapt to the harsh environment and numerous threats of Seattle.

FACE | CLEAN

KEY TRAITS

- Arched Eyebrows
- Gray-Blue Eyes
- Dirty Blonde Hair
- French Braid
- Scar on her left forehead

FACE | BRUISING

Bruising appears on Abby on her left forehead. A layer of grime and dirt covers her face, indicating the arduous journey throughout the Seattle forests and the Island.

HAIR

Abby keeps her hair long but wears it in a tight braid, allowing her to easily move and fight alongside her militia peers and during their assignments. Her hair is pulled back with a traditional french braid that starts at the center of her head. The braid continues down to the middle of her back and secured with a brown hair tie with about three inches of loose hair hanging at the end.

SHIRT

Abby wears a faded black t-shirt that is altered with cut-off sleeves. Core details include holes along the hem and back left shoulder. The edges and seams of the shirt are distressed with slight fraying. Her shirt is lightly soiled, stained, and weathered from use.

PANTS

Abby wears beige cargo workman's pants with natural wear and tear on the heel area of the hems, thighs, and on the tops of her knees. The pants have two multi-function pockets on either side.

PANTS

Abby's shoes are worn down, brown leather workman boots. The soles are visibly thin and the aging leather is starting to buckle from years of continual use and activity.

BACKPACK

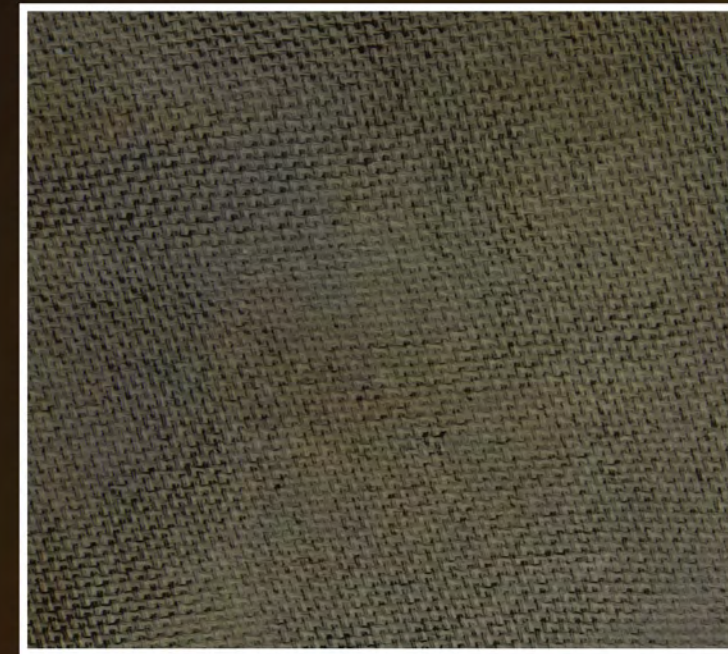

Abby carries an Olive Green waxed canvas backpack. Details include tan leather and buckle straps, metal buckles and carabiner clips. One side of the bag has a strap that acts as a holster for Abby's weapons.

CROSSBOW

Abby's compound crossbow is predominantly jet black with wooden limbs and a hunting scope. Its arrows feature black and white striped feathers. The arrow in the images below are for display purposes only.

CROSSBOW

The limbs of the crossbow open and close for compact carrying. When closed, the limbs hug the sides of the barrel and its strings are pulled beneath the scope. There is some subtle grime due to exposure from the humid, damp Seattle climate.

FLAMETHROWER

Abby carries a custom green flamethrower while en route to the Seattle hospital. Unlike Joel's homemade flamethrower from The Last of Us, Abby's flamethrower is military-grade and factory-produced.

HAMMER

Abby occasionally equips a Seraphite's dropped hammer after they have fallen during combat. This hammer features a long wooden handle with the iron head bolted to the sides of the handle. The handle extends directly into the base of the hammer's head. A small hole is drilled into the bottom of the handle so Seraphites may hang the hammer in their workshops. The iron head is rusted, worn down, and dented from consistent use.
